Tachograph legislation*

Tachographs are compulsory on any minibus with 10 seats or more that is used for commercial purposes. However, there are exemptions to this and due to the complexity of tachograph legislation it is advisable that operators seek independent advice or consult the Commercial Vehicle Specialist at your Vauxhall retailer. Alternatively your local DVLA office will also be able to provide clarification of the relevant legislation.

Due to their precise operational requirements, digital tachographs are not pre-calibrated. Legal requirements dictate that they must be calibrated by an approved tachograph centre within 14 days of the vehicle's registration.

What is M1 testing?

European test procedures are calculated on the basis that seatbelt loading in an accident is likely to be higher in smaller vehicles because the deceleration rate is greater. The anchorage requirements therefore vary according to the category of vehicle. An M1 category vehicle is one which is used for the carriage of passengers and has no more than eight seats in addition to the driver's seat; an M2 category vehicle has more than eight seats in addition to the driver's seat and a maximum weight not exceeding five tonnes. Although Vivaro and Movano minibuses fall into this latter category, to ensure optimum safety, Vauxhall has insisted that these minibuses are tested to ECE regulation 14.05 at M1 loading, which requires the seatbelt and their anchorages to perform satisfactorily under deceleration loading of 20G – twice that required by the M2 test.

The fuel consumption figures shown comply with EC directive 1999/100 to provide a realistic indication of fuel consumption by taking into account everyday driving conditions, such as cold starts, acceleration and braking. These figures take account of the vehicle's kerbweight, ascertained in accordance with the above regulation. Important: the results given relate to the particular vehicle tested. Variations in trim level and equipment may result in slightly higher fuel consumption and CO₂ emission levels than those quoted. Driving style, road and traffic conditions, vehicle mileage and standard of maintenance may also affect fuel consumption; therefore the results do not express or imply any guarantee of fuel consumption attainable.
